The most exciting 21 km in Berlin

The Generali Berlin Half Marathon finishes just past the Brandenburg Gate — Berlin's number-one spring sporting event and the atmospheric kick-off to the running year.

The start and finish sit between the Chancellery, the Reichstag, the Victory Column and the Brandenburg Gate — a spectacular heart-of-the-city stage.

A sightseeing tour on foot: historic buildings, trendy neighbourhoods, cultural palaces and parks, on a flat, wind-sheltered course that has hosted the last seven world half-marathon records.

THE EXPERIENCE

A city full of history — and flavour

From the Berlin Wall and Checkpoint Charlie to the Holocaust Memorial and the Reichstag, Berlin offers powerful reminders of the 20th century, plus a world-class art and museum scene.

And the food is diverse and affordable — from Currywurst and Schnitzel to some of the best Turkish and Vietnamese in Europe.
