THE 2027 EDITION

All runners are beautiful

The Generali Prague Half Marathon is one of Europe's most popular half marathons. Set up almost 25 years ago with one simple goal — to inspire the people of the Czech Republic to get active — it now draws runners from all over the world to the Golden City.

The organisers have planned an incredible route through Prague's most iconic spots: start and finish in the Josefov district, crossing four bridges over the Vltava, with breathtaking river views and a checkpoint by the Charles Bridge — and Prague Castle watching over it all.

The event's motto is 'All runners are beautiful', and it shows in the field: local schoolchildren line up alongside the world's fastest distance runners on a flat, fast course. The 2027 edition takes place on Saturday, 3 April 2027, and every runner registers through our travel agency with a guaranteed entry.

THE EXPERIENCE

A weekend in Prague

Beyond the race, spend a long weekend in one of Europe's most beautiful cities — a compact, walkable centre full of history, museums and monuments, from the Museum of Communism to the Jewish Museum. April offers excellent conditions for running and sightseeing alike: not too hot, not too cold.

Prague is also a city for beer lovers — inexpensive, deeply woven into social life, with many pubs serving unfiltered, unpasteurised "tank beer". The perfect way to celebrate once you cross the finish line.

- Prague Castle along the way
- A checkpoint by Charles Bridge
- Four bridges over the Vltava
- Start & finish in Josefov
- Post-race brewery celebration
- SuperHalfs race-weekend buzz
